

Chazen International Study Tours

Summer 2013 Information Session

Poland

Thursday, May 30

Who goes?

- Full-time Business School students (no significant others); a faculty member and sometimes a staff member. Tours range from 20-40 participants
- Students with holds on their accounts are unable to participate in Chazen Study Tours

What are they like?

- Intense! A mix of business and cultural visits
- ALL company visits are mandatory
- Expect about 2 business meetings each business day, which works out to 7-10 throughout the trip (depends on the length of the tour and the visits themselves)

What is the schedule?

- Student organizers will show you tentative itineraries at this point with targeted companies. Many companies will not confirm until closer to the travel dates, but these are based on personal contacts and previous tours. Leading up to the travel, each tour will have a pre-departure meeting with the latest schedule.

What is included?

- Hotels (double occupancy)
- Local transport
- Breakfasts and some lunches and dinners

How do international flights work?

- Since most people are coming from different locations, there is no group flight. Information will be provided about airport transfers.

How do I sign up?

- LOTTERY:

Enter the online lottery open from Thursday, May 30 to midnight on Thursday, June 6 by submitting your name and a paragraph explaining your interest in the tour. If the tour does not fill through the lottery, it will be open as first-come, first-serve.

- ALL TOURS:

Notifications will be sent by Friday, June 7. Once you have been notified of your spot on the tour, please visit the given online site immediately to pay your deposit and fill in important travel details. If you do NOT pay by Monday, June 10 (end of day), your spot will be offered to someone on the waitlist.
