This four-part e-mail series explores how your gift to the annual funds supports the pillars of the Columbia Business School experience: knowledge, access, community, and impact.

Your support helps Columbia Business School create unmatched opportunities for students to engage with business leaders in and out of the classroom.

Exposure to the pulse of business
Direct access to countless industry experts in New York City and beyond.

Real-world experience
Immersion courses and programs that bring top practitioners and alumni leaders to campus.

Technology to bridge the gap
Investments in new infrastructure and software to improve and enhance student and faculty resources.

Your pride. Your network.
Your Columbia Business School.

Your gift to the Columbia Business Fund or Executive MBA Fund provides critical resources that enhance the entire Columbia Business School community. A strong annual fund ensures the School’s ability to deliver a world-class education that prepares students for a lifetime of leadership and fosters a powerful, connected, global alumni community.
