QUICK FACTS: Fall Venture Fair

Event Details

• Fall Venture Fair takes place on an evening in the fall semester.

Event Description

• The Fair provides an opportunity for students to practice their pitch and gather feedback from advisors.
• Accepted individuals/teams are given an area of three feet within a long table to display their business concept.
• Promotion materials (business cards, signage, etc.) are encouraged.
• A team representative must be present at the table at all times.
• Tables are pre-assigned and shared upon arrival.
• Business casual attire is recommended.

Eligibility

• Columbia Business School students with ventures at any stage of development, concept to post-launch.

Application Requirements

• An application and executive summary are required to participate.

Selection Process

• While an application is required to participate, the purpose of Fall Venture Fair is to welcome students with ventures at all stages of development. Applications that meet the evaluation criteria will most likely be accepted for participation.

Evaluation Criteria

• Applications must be completed in full and submitted with an executive summary by the deadline. Applications focusing on more than one business concept will not be considered.

Admission Decisions

• Announced within one week of application deadline.

Questions?

• Contact Sandra Merrill: skm2147@columbia.edu