“The community at Columbia is truly amazing. It’s an incredibly tight-knit, supportive group and we have all of New York City at our fingertips.”

—Cynthia Kiang ’14

For a closer look at our community, visit gsb.columbia.edu/notes.

At each location on the map, scan the relevant QR code with your smartphone to watch a video about the place. Or you can visit the URL below each code on your mobile device’s web browser.

URIS HALL
Second Floor

Centers (2M)
Accessed from the stairs marked 2M, our centers develop programs, coursework, and events in a range of areas, like finance and entrepreneurship.

Career Management Center
The advisors at the CMC guide our students through every step of the job search process and connect them with our global alumni network.

Career Management Library (2M)
Here current students research careers in industries of interest or look up a specific company.

Samberg Institute
This center is focused on further strengthening teaching excellence at the School.

Admissions Office, Uris 216
Drop by to speak with an admissions counselor from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Career Management Library (2M)

Executives in Residence
Thanks to the School’s industry ties, leaders from a range of areas come to mentor students.

URIS HALL
Third Floor

Lockers
Convenient to stash your stuff or paste a photo of your favorite CEO, these span each hall.

Uris Deli
You might grab a bite here between classes or meet up with your learning team to study. It’s also home to Columbia’s legendary Thursday night happy hours.

Lehman Lounge
Like the Library and the deli, this is a popular spot to study or pick up a snack between classes.

Room 301
You might have an orientation session here, the largest auditorium in Uris, or listen to a talk from an influential CEO.

URIS HALL
First Floor

As you explore the School, questions are bound to arise. For prospective students, the Admissions Office is the best place to get answers. Swing by Uris 216 and we’ll be happy to chat.