Family Business Program

Mission Statement
The Columbia Family Business Program provides a global community of students, alumni, executives, and owners with essential knowledge and critical skills to be effective leaders, successful managers, knowledgeable advisors, and informed beneficiaries of family-controlled enterprises. The Program is committed to delivering broad-based educational programs, new insights through original research, and opportunities to convene in a safe environment for serious reflection and inquiry. Family businesses are the heart of the world’s economy and society, and our goal is to help their major decision makers and stakeholders have a positive impact on business, financial, civic and philanthropic sectors.

Welcome to the family!
The immediate mission of FBC to its members is to serve as both a resource and a space for discussion of often challenging topics unique to family businesses, in areas such as governance, succession planning, nepotism and the separation of family life and work life.

We strive to create a lifelong community built on trust, respect, and shared experiences for all members.

The long term mission of the club is to establish CBS as the premier business school for family business from an educational, networking and research perspective.

We are thrilled to induct you into our Family!!
